Well, the first official days of school are in the books! I hope that you and your children found the first few days to be as enjoyable as we did! Many thanks go out to the entire staff of Cory-Rawson for all their preparation and efforts to make sure that each day was a success. You, as parents, are also appreciated for your support and help in making the transition from summer schedules to school. It was great to see so many of you at the Open House on Tuesday evening. It was even more enjoyable to see the smiles on our students' faces as they checked out their classrooms, readied their lockers, and got reacquainted with their friends!

For sports teams and extracurriculars who are now, already, in full swing. Next week will mark the first contest for many of them. This Friday the football team will travel to Waynesfield-Goshen for their last scrimmage before officially opening the season against Bluffton the following week. The volleyball team will host Ada and Waynesfield Goshen in a tri-match on Saturday. Good luck Hornets!

Don't forget a few important upcoming dates. Next week will mark the first day of Kindergarten for our newest Hornets! Following next week we will be in session on Monday, August 31, and then students will be out of session for Fair Break from Tuesday through Labor Day Monday. Good luck to all fair participants! Finally, our staff will be here on September 1 for professional development related to safety training and educational curriculum.

Have a great weekend!
